Therefore, venue is also proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).

STATEMENT OF FACTS

I. Phillips 66 – Intellectual Property Rights

6. For more than 140 years, Phillips 66 and its predecessors in interest (collectively “Phillips 66”) have engaged in the world-wide manufacture, marketing, distribution, and sale of high-quality petroleum products and services, including gasoline, diesel, jet fuel, lubricants, motor fuels, and other related products and services. Phillips 66 manages over 18,000 miles of crude oil, raw natural gas liquid, natural gas and petroleum product pipeline systems in the United States, including those partially owned and operated by affiliates.

7. Phillips 66 has long and continuously used in commerce the mark CONOCO (since at least as early as 1875), the associated CONOCO Capsule Device shown below (since at least as early as 1970), and the Road Design Logo shown below on the right (since at least as early as 2004) in connection with gasoline, motor oil, fuel and service station services, as well as a variety of other goods and services (the “CONOCO Marks”).

8. CONOCO branded stations are widely recognized throughout the country. In the United States, there are over 1,700 CONOCO branded stations.

9. Since at least 2003, Phillips 66 has also continuously used in commerce distinctive trade dress for its CONOCO branded stations, including signage with the CONOCO Marks, fuel dispenser and island elements, a 45-degree angle red and silver striping on the canopy and fuel dispenser valences, a canopy and fuel island design including red and silver striping on the poles, and other distinctive components (as shown below).

10. In addition to its extensive common law rights, Phillips 66 owns numerous federal trademark registrations for the CONOCO Marks and trade dress, including, but not limited to U.S. Reg. Nos. 521,617, 935,806, 1,067,959, 1,911,017, 3,177,151, 3,226,182, 3,226,183, and 3,354,648. Attached hereto as Exhibit A are copies of these registrations.

11. Many of these registrations are incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1065. See, e.g., U.S. Reg. Nos. 521,617, 935,806, 1,067,959, 1,911,017 and 3,177,151. Such registrations constitute conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks and of the registration of the marks, of the registrant's ownership of the marks, and of the registrant's exclusive right to use the registered marks in commerce under 15 U.S.C. § 1115(b).

12. The common law and registered marks and trade dress discussed above are referred to collectively as the "CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress," unless otherwise specified.

13. The CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress are inherently distinctive, and serve to identify and indicate the source of Phillips 66's products and services to the consuming public, and to distinguish its products and services from those of others. Indeed, relevant consumers immediately recognize and rely upon the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress as indicators of origin in a single source, that is, Phillips 66, and as symbols of quality and value. Such recognition of Phillips 66's products and services occurs in large measure to its substantial marketing and advertising efforts in the United States in connection with the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress.

14. Additionally, as a result of Phillips 66's frequent and widespread use and promotion of the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress, they have become distinctive to designate Phillips 66's goods and services, to distinguish Phillips 66's goods and services from those of others, and to distinguish the source or origin of Phillips 66's goods and services.

15. Phillips 66 has established a number of quality control standards and procedures to protect the safety of its customers and to ensure its customers associate the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress with quality products.

16. Furthermore, Phillips 66 routinely performs random quality spot checks at its authorized stations to ensure consistent quality of the products and services offered at each station.

17. As a result of Phillips 66's quality control measures and promotion expenditures, Phillips 66 has developed goodwill, public recognition, and strong rights in its marks, which consumers have come to know and trust as symbols of quality and value.

18. Phillips 66 has invested considerable effort and resources in developing, using, advertising, and promoting the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress in the United States. Over the years, Phillips 66 has sold billions of gallons of products nationwide under its CONOCO Marks

& Trade Dress. Because of the substantial revenues generated under its brands on an annual basis, Phillips 66 is consistently ranked among top companies on the annual Fortune 500 list.

19. As a result of Phillips 66's long, extensive, widespread, and substantially exclusive use of the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress and the extensive consumer exposure to Phillips 66's quality products and services thereunder, Phillips 66 has developed enormous goodwill in the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress which are of inestimable value to Phillips 66.

II. Defendant's Unauthorized Use of the Marks and Trade Dress

20. On information and belief, Defendant owns the property located at 840 Ridge Ave, Philadelphia, PA 19121 which prominently features the CONOCO Marks and Trade Dress (the "Infringing Site") without authorization.

21. Phillips 66 informed Defendant that any authority to use the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress in connection with the Infringing Site terminated at least as of August 15, 2021.

22. The Infringing Site has since failed at least 11 consecutive audits performed by Phillips 66.

23. Phillips 66 has repeatedly demanded that the Infringing Site be debranded by removing all CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress. Defendant has failed to comply with Phillips 66's proper requests.

24. Defendant continues to use the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress at the Infringing Site, or marks or trade dresses highly similar thereto, without authority or permission from Phillips 66.

25. Upon information and belief, the Infringing Site continues to operate as independent station selling fuel that is unapproved, not genuine CONOCO branded fuel and outside the scope of the minimum fuel quality standards. By using the CONOCO Marks & Trade

Dress at the Infringing Site to promote the sale of fuel that is not genuine CONOCO branded fuel, Defendant is selling counterfeit services and products.

26. Defendant has set out on a deliberate course of conduct to deceive consumers into believing that the Infringing Site continues to be connected, associated, or affiliated with Phillips 66 in an effort to unlawfully exploit Phillips 66's valuable goodwill and intellectual property. Defendant's efforts to deceive the public into believing the Infringing Site is still affiliated with Phillips 66 include Defendant's continuing and intentional use of the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress at the Infringing Site, even though Defendant has no permission to do so.

III. Effect of Defendant's Activities on Phillips 66 and the Consuming Public

27. Defendant's unauthorized use of the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress is likely to cause confusion, to cause mistake, or to deceive consumers into believing falsely that there is some affiliation, connection, or association between the Infringing Site and Phillips 66, or as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of the goods or services offered at the Infringing Site.

28. The unauthorized use of the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress by Defendant falsely designates the origin of its goods and services, and falsely or misleadingly describes and represents facts with respect to Defendant and its goods and services at the Infringing Site.

29. Defendant's unauthorized use of the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress constitutes the use of spurious marks that are identical or substantially indistinguishable from the marks shown in Phillips 66's federal registrations covering the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress.

30. Defendant's unauthorized use of the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress removes from Phillips 66 the ability to control the nature and quality of goods and services provided under its marks and trade dress, and places the valuable reputation and goodwill of Phillips 66 in the hands of Defendant, over whom Phillips 66 has no control.

31. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendant as alleged herein, Phillips 66 has suffered and will continue to suffer great damage to its trademarks, trade dress, business, goodwill, reputation, and profits.

32. Unless these unfair and deceptive practices and acts of unfair competition by Defendant are restrained by this Court, such acts will continue to cause irreparable harm and injury to Phillips 66 and to the public, for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

33. Defendant's acts of infringement, counterfeiting, and unfair competition complained of herein have been malicious, fraudulent, deliberate, willful, intentional, and in bad faith, with full knowledge and conscious disregard of Phillips 66's rights. In view of the egregious nature of Defendant's actions, this is an exceptional case within the meaning of Section 35(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a).

COUNT I: INFRINGEMENT OF REGISTERED MARKS

34. Phillips 66 repeats the above allegations as if fully set forth herein.

35. Phillips 66 owns protectable rights in the registered CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress.

36. Phillips 66 has priority over Defendant.

37. Defendant's unauthorized use of the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress is likely to cause confusion, to cause mistake, or to deceive consumers.

38. Defendant has thus infringed Phillips 66's trademark and trade dress rights in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

39. The aforementioned acts by Defendant have caused, and unless enjoined by this Court will continue to cause, irreparable harm and incalculable monetary loss to Phillips 66 for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT II: VIOLATION OF LANHAM ACT SECTION 43(a)

40. Phillips 66 repeats the above allegations as if fully set forth herein.

41. Phillips 66 owns protectable rights in the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress.

42. Phillips 66 has priority over Defendant.

43. Defendant's unauthorized use of the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress at the Infringing Site is likely to cause confusion, to cause mistake, or to deceive consumers.

44. Defendant have thus infringed Phillips 66's trademark and trade dress rights and committed unfair competition in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

45. The aforementioned acts by Defendant have caused, and unless enjoined by this Court will continue to cause, irreparable harm and incalculable monetary loss to Phillips 66 for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT III: FEDERAL TRADEMARK COUNTERFEITING

46. Phillips 66 repeats the above allegations as if fully set forth herein.

47. Phillips 66 owns federal registrations covering the CONOCO Marks, including U.S. Reg. Nos. 521,617, 935,806, 1,067,959, 1,911,017 and 3,177,151.

48. Defendant is intentionally using the CONOCO Marks spurious marks that are identical or substantially indistinguishable at the Infringing Sites knowing that it is offering to sell counterfeit products and services.

49. Defendant has thus engaged in counterfeiting of the CONOCO Marks in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

50. The aforementioned acts by Defendant have caused, and unless enjoined by this Court will continue to cause, irreparable harm and incalculable monetary loss to Phillips 66 for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Phillips 66 requests that:

- a) Defendant, Defendant's agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all those persons in active concert or participation with them, be preliminarily and permanently enjoined from using the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress at the Infringing Site and in conjunction with the Infringing Site, any element thereof, and any other mark or trade dress confusingly similar thereto;
- b) Defendant, Defendant's agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all those persons in active concert or participation with them, be required to immediately modify the marks at the Infringing Site to remove or otherwise eliminate all elements and instances of the CONOCO Marks & Trade Dress, any element thereof, and any other mark confusingly similar thereto;
- c) Defendant be ordered to file with this Court and to serve upon Phillips 66, within 30 days after the entry of the injunction, a report in writing and under oath setting forth in detail the manner and form in which Defendant has complied with the injunction;
- d) Phillips 66 recover all damages it has sustained and/or all profits realized by Defendant as a result of Defendant's infringement, counterfeiting, false designations of origin, false or misleading descriptions or representations of fact, unfair competition, and unfair and deceptive business practices;

- e) An accounting be directed to determine Defendant's profits from Defendant's activities, and that such profits be paid over to Phillips 66, increased as the Court finds to be just under the circumstances of this case or trebled under 15 U.S.C. § 1117 as a result of Defendant's willful infringement and unfair competition;
- f) Alternatively, if greater, Phillips 66 recover statutory damages under 15 U.S.C. § 1117 as a result of Defendants' counterfeiting;
- g) Phillips 66 be awarded three times Defendant's profits or three times Phillips 66's damages, whichever is greater, together with its reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1117(a) and (b);
- h) Phillips 66 recover its reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees;
- i) Phillips 66 recover its costs of this action and prejudgment and post-judgment interest; and
- j) Phillips 66 recover such other relief as the Court may find appropriate.

JURY DEMAND

Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b), Phillips 66 demands a trial by jury on all issues triable of right by a jury.
